The moon is in Pisces starting 2022
Also a new moon in Aquarius on feb the 1st it's true,
It's my year for new changes and new starts ahead
Astrologers say it's time to make my bed,
My new bed of memories and and making connections
Showing the world and all the doubters
I can write music with affection
Making sense of the bullies and teachers gone
Laughing at my abilities but it just made me cry,
Being a bird in the 70's trying to find our feet
Being boho and alternative was one mean feat,
I tried to express myself and made a group called buttermilk
To be able to write music and write lyrics if a certain ilk
Music has always been my passion,
It's seen me through hard times
It made sense of the world for me,
Just like Leanne rhymes,
It's hard to be taken seriously I said I was a poet,
The teachers scoffed, and so did my mother, no support and didn't want to know it
Know that I had feelings and wanted to speak my truth
And be more than I was being Elizabeth Ruth
I was 13 then and 60 now
The years have rolled by and I always wonder how I got here to this stage without my love of my life
Loving music together and the feelings were rife,
Of being together and doing musical things
Of concerts and DJ ing has a musical ring It's been a passion of mine to spin the wheels of steel vinyl for real so cheers to the past and looking forward to the future, Putting my work out there doing good work for the soul
All in all from here on my life can become whole.....
